

The founders of the Zealand-Flanders created a regional flag and a small pin imaging the flag. They presented the pin to every scholar who left school with a diploma. We stimulated and adopted this gesture and will continue this action coming year. Also the flag is a great success for the inhabitants. It influences the feeling of being part and proud of the region.

