

We made an evaluation-report by research under the participants. We evaluated the aims, the results and the way of organising. We concluded to continue and to add more structure and professionalism to the organisation. The discussion how to make it more professional is started. We also want to achieve a broad public support. So we will restart the search for basic qualities and redefine the identity with a larger group.