

Ambassadors evening to explain the ideas for regional branding and to create exposure. That evening was also the kick off for the start of the activities to celebrate the existence of 200 year Zealand Flanders. About 1000 invitations were sent to all kinds of organisations in the region. More than 300 people attended it.